Dear Miss Curry:

I regret to have to advise you that none of the publications listed in your letter of April 7, are available for public distribution or are on sale, except "History of the Use of Code and Code Language---International Telegraphic Regulations," which may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, at a cost of twenty cents.

Sincerely yours,

William F. Friedman
Director of Communications

Wm. F. Friedman,
Lt. Col., Signal Corps,
Office of the Chief Signal Officer,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I am interested in obtaining some publications on the subject of Cryptography which are listed in a Bibliography published in 1938 by James D. Volts of Cincinnati, Ohio. In answer to my inquiry, the Riverbank Laboratories, Geneva, Illinois, replied that I might be able to secure them by writing directly to the author.

I would appreciate copies of any or all of the following publications, as the Indianapolis Public Library does not have them in its stacks. I will be very glad to pay any fee that is charged, and will remit immediately upon receipt:

"Method of Reconstructing the Primary Alphabet from a Single One of the Series of Secondary Alphabets" (1917)

"Methods for the Solution of Running-Key Ciphers" (1918)

"Introduction to Methods for Solution of Ciphers", (1918)

"Synoptic Tables for Solution of Ciphers" (1918)

"Several Machine Ciphers and Methods for their Solution" (1918)

"Methods for the Reconstruction of Primary Alphabets" (1918)

"Index of Coincidence and its Applications in Cryptography" (1922)

"Synoptic Tables for the Star Cipher" (1918)

"History of the Use of Code and Code Language--International Telegraphic Regulations, etc." (1928)

"Elements of Cryptanalysis" (1924).

Yours very truly,

Grace M. Curry
