IN REPLY REFER TO

SUBJECT: Letter of appreciation from
 Air Command and Staff School

AFSA-14/fal
 Serial: 1330

TO: Mr. William F. Friedman,
 Armed Forces Security Agency,
 Washington 25, D. C.

2 NOV 1950

1. I have received a letter of appreciation from Colonel John C. Horton, USAF, Deputy Commandant of the Air Command and Staff School, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama, as a result of your recent appearance before the students as a guest lecturer from the Armed Forces Security Agency.

2. I take great pleasure in quoting the contents of the letter as follows:

"1. The Air Command and Staff School desires to express its appreciation for the outstanding presentation made by Mr. William F. Friedman of your organization to the students of the Air Communication and Electronic Staff Officers Course on 29 September 1950.

"2. Mr. Friedman's expert portrayal of the background, development and manner of employment of Communications Intelligence as a military weapon will undoubtedly have a lasting impression on those who were privileged to be present at his lecture.

"3. The Air Command and Staff School is honored to have had Mr. Friedman participate in its educational program and is looking forward with pleasure to the possibility of having him speak to the future classes of the Air Communication and Electronic Staff Officers Course."
