Dear Tony:

It was good to hear from you. I hope you will continue to enjoy fine weather. As I recall, it was rather brisk there in late November in 1976!

We will be glad to research our files to see if we have duplicates of the items indexed for, but not present in, the Friedman Collection. We will await information from you.

As to the Friedman diary, I am sending your requests - for the edited diary and for possible declassification of the remainder - to the appropriate elements in the Agency, and I will, of course, let you know as soon as action is taken.

Best wishes to you and all our other friends at that Library.

Sincerely,

VINCENT J. WILSON, Jr.
