Dear Royster:

Thanks for your kind letter. You know I have very much enjoyed my association with you, Tony, Fred - as well as my old boss - over the years, and each visit to Lexington was indeed a special and cherished experience. I will let you know if Hank Schorreck and I can make it to Lexington this summer: I hope that we can. In the meantime, you can always call Hank at our number.

I can't leave without a request - besides, of course, keep in touch -: one of our chums, and colleagues, Russ Fisher, is going to be in the Lexington area around the 30th of June and would like to visit the library and see the Friedman Collection. He is working as a re-employed annuitant and he has active clearances. I would appreciate anything you can do for him.

Hoping to see you this summer.

Cordially,
